CRAB ORCHARD
Repairs on the Christian church have begun.

In the debate last Friday the Lee side was victorious.

R. G. Williams, of the Signal office, was in town Sunday.

Dwight Hardin has returned from a business trip to Jellico, Tennessee.

Tom and Sam Curtis, of Richmond, were the guests of the Misses Buchanan Sunday.

The Mountain Signal daily increases in popularity and favor in this community.

Mrs. Logan of Stanford, spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Elmiston. Mrs. E. accompanied her home.

Miss Alice Ward and her brother, Sam, leave this week for Frankfort, to spend a week with their father, Hon. Sam Ward.

Dr. Warder, of Louisville, met Rev. J. N. Boling here last Sunday and preached for him. He is engaged in the missionary work.

Many thanks to Mrs. Kate Chadwick, Mrs. Sam Ward, Misses Louana James, Rebecca Stuart, Leila Doones and Ila Lee Holdam for excellent treats and dinners received.

Miss Alice Ward returned from Livingston last Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Frank Clifford who will remain here a few days and then join her husband at Junction City.

Mrs. Hawes who left here a month or more ago, returned to her home. Her sick father will not return to finish teaching the present session. Her father died and several other members of the family are now very ill with the fever and she will remain with them. Prof. Duvall has employed Miss Lillie Thixten's sister to teach in Mrs. Hawes' place. She arrived Sunday.

PINE HILL
John McHargue will not eat molasses.

J. H. Sowder and wife, of Jellico are visiting at Pine Hill.

Uncle Jonas Brown is in our midst and playing havoc among our boys swapping knives.

Our friend A. T. McHargue, of London, paid parents and friends at Pine Hill, a visit last Friday.

C. S. Harris, of Virginia, our clever fruit agent, is among us, in the capacity of collector of slow notes.

George Watkins who has been acting as section foreman here, has gone to London to take charge of the section at that place.

Judge Carter of near Brodhead and H. C. Broughton, swapped chickens and the Judge came up for the exchange of roosters last week.

Now Brethren please give me a rest for I have moved from where I now live. [How do you figure this? Ed.]

Tom if you will fill your mouth full of cold water and sit on the stove until it boils, your tooth will get better as soon as it begins to mend.

Walk Gentry says he has found a skinner and bid for the ugliest man in the state and thinks John Doan, of Pine Hill ought to have them but I am of the opinion they ought to be divided between Walk and John.

The youngsters gathered in to set up with Bud Suttles last Friday night and turned the sad affair into a dance, they say they had a fine time, and looking forward to a better time when the old critter dies.

Jas. Baker has been gone from home a week swapping horses and selling books. I guess Jim makes a good book agent for he can talk a man to death and then resurrect him by talk, and a man will buy a book to get rid of swapping horses with him.

Miss Cinda Bashears has gone to her home in Jellico and we are therefore deprived of one of our most lively and highly respected young ladies, and we hereby extend our sympathies to the young men of Pine Hill and condole ourselves with our loss in Jellico's gain.

WOODSTOCK

Quite a sensation in town; no liquor now.

Betsy Debord died last week of consumption.

Rev. A. J. Pike has been chosen pastor of our church for the coming year.

Mc Vanhook has a sick child, but the doctors are not able to tell the disease.

Jas. Thompson fell and injured his shoulder sometime ago, but is better now.

Adam Isaacs has been sick for some time, but is improving. We hope he will soon recover.

J. J. Thompson was tried last Friday, and fined $20, and cost, for keeping a tipling house.

Jas. Martin has bought a farm two miles West of here from General Purcell, at $2, per acre.

Mrs. Jesse is visiting friends at Berea.

Three new cases of measles at Noah Lockharts.

H. H. Wood, of Disputanta was here Monday.

John Sparks has rented the black smith shop of A. T. & J. Fish.

John Rainey, formerly of Estill county, is now a citizen of Wildie.

J. P. Haley and Charley Adams were with us last week drumming.

Wm. Stewart is in Knox county, visiting his son, who is not expected to live.

I. B. Wind, the inspector, was here Sunday taking up ties for the Big Sandy R. R.

A. T. Fish Jr., Pat Curran, L. Robinson and O. Landram, of Berea, were here Sunday.

A. T. Fish have completed their house there will be a new drug store soon; Ambros & Co. are the druggists.

WAND
Jasper Francisco has moved to his own place.

Died, on the 20th inst, an infant of Mrs. Bussell.

W. H. Cummings has gone to Louisville on business.

William Kirby is building George Livesey's house this week.

Top Thompson was in this section last week hunting sheep.

J. T. Livesey bought of James Head, a mare for $112.50.

D. M. Lee bought of Albert Mink a nice span of mules, for $180.

George Livesey bought of J. T. Livesey a head of cattle at $15, per head.

Adam Cross, a son of D. M. Lee, was at $67, and at $13, per head.

Bill

matrimony, he says he has one horse and will soon have another. Joe Renner is also a candidate at the same house. Look out boys we can't tell which one will get off.

PAINT LICK

Dear Signal: Our farmers the past week have taken advantage of the fine weather, and much plowing has been done.

Miss Mollie T. Eager, of Owsley county, is here attending school. She is boarding with F. M. Lutes.

The wheat that was sown broadcast is somewhat damaged by the freeze, but all wheat put in with a drill is looking nice.

Hon. W. A. Anderson dropped in Saturday from the Capital. He is the Representative from Garrard county and says the Legislature had as well adjourn for all the good they are doing.

I just stepped into the depot for an item and found our worthy agent, Jno. R. Wearren, assisted by Joe Adams, who is every ready to tell you what he knows. The boys were looking pale, says I boys, what is the matter. Oh nothing, only fourteen girls have called here to-day, I then thought of its being leap-year.

I learn from those boys that since June 1st 1887, to January 1st 1888, there had been shipped from this place 87 cars of live stock, consisting of mules, cattle, sheep and hogs, and since the 1st of October to the present time there has been shipped to this point 45 cars of live stock. A little village of country from there is a considerable trade shipped from there, and a good deal of coal shipped to that point as well as here.

I would have your many readers know that the little village of Paint Lick is not to be sneezed at. We have all sorts of communications with the outside world. We're midway between Lancaster and Richmond, twelve miles from either place, directly on the K. C. R. R. We have three turnpikes and talk of one more, one drug store kept by Mrs. F. L. Adams having had many years experience in the business, we pronounce her a first class druggist. Three dry good stores and one hard ware store. I often hear it said goods can be bought cheaper in our little town than the same article can be had for in Lancaster or Richmond. Two black smith shops any one wood workman. We have another shop that repairs carriages &c., and keeps all kinds of vehicles for sale, we also have two hotels, the Veranda, kept by W. Ward, and the Paint Lick house, run by C. B. Engleman. We have a splendid mill, run by J. G. Rucker & Co. Our village has a population of something over 200, and is in the midst of a good farming community.

LIVINGSTON
Will Stone, of Stanford, has returned to the fold.
Miss Susie Robinson, of Wildie is in Livingston this week.
Judge Lair, of Mt. Vernon, made us a visit Saturday.
Miss Alice Ward, of Crab Orchard, has been visiting Mrs. Frank Clifford.

Marshal McCormick, the enterprising mill-man of Conway, in company with a Mr. Smith, of Ohio, was down to see James Sambrook Friday night.
Messrs. Millsbaugh, of Covington, Adams, of Cynthiaana, Collier, of Millersburg, Bacon & son, of Roach, McClintock, of Woodfork, Ling and Anderson, of Paris, Stockholders in the Livingston Coal Co, were out Thursday. I heard that they offered $23.00 for the Sambrook property in this county including the hotel and mill. They will hold a meeting in Paris to decide the matter.

"Disputanta" says there is plenty of mud, somebody has been treed by a wild-cat and that he has been pig-bit. No doubt the rest of the world will be alarmed when they hear of this sad state of affairs. The Islanders will put on mourning and the Patagonians take a holiday. (big circulation, don't you see.) He doesn't say whether the pig died or not, but I suppose it did. I would advise him to shave his head closely, apply ice constantly and take double doses of the Bromides every half hour to prevent the inflammation of the brain. I would also administer a liberal amount of condition Powders and sage tea to sweat out the egotism that is still lurking in the system, and if the pig-bite is all that is hurting him, he will soon be well.

He reminds me of the fly on the chariot wheel when it said "What a dust I do make!" If this encounter should cause his untimely death, or if the pig "has passed on before" the earth will continue to revolve around the sun and the planetary system remain undisturbed.

BRODHEAD.
Jas. Francisco was in town Saturday.

C. A. Bridges was the guest of Miss Susie Woodyard Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Callie Thompson is spending a week with her brother, Russell Thompson.

Robert Smith, of Chesnut Ridge Ind., is visiting his sister, Mrs. B. A. Yaden.

Mrs. Mary Ann has returned from a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. John Brown at Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Doughtie, wife and daughter, of London, were down here several days under the treatment of Dr. Burdett.

Wm. Hutchinson, formerly of this place, but now conductor on the Southern road, was in town the latter part of the week.

Chas. Talbot, who has been with the renovating machine in Wayne county, W. Va., is home for a few weeks visit.

Mr. Geo. Payor walked to Danville last week and drove a herd of cattle for Mr. Nichols, came back Sunday eve on the passenger.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cummins of Preacherville and Misses Ida and Battie Mullins of Maresburg were the guests of Miss Carter Sunday night.

Mrs. Carter is dangerously ill. She has a cancerous tumor on her throat, whose rapid growth threatens a fatal termination if not speedily checked.

Jno. Jared, of W. Va., is visiting his family a few miles from this place. It is rumored that they will return with him to make their future home in that state.

Robert Mitchell left last week for Lilly to take a position in the Citico mills. The "Good-byes" were said among the tears and embraces of near and dear friends.

H. N. Mitchell had the misfortune to lose one of his work-horses Friday valued at $80. Miss Alma Carson was also the loser of one of her pet pigs, cause unknown.

Frank Ross has given up the care of the tanks at Lilly and Corbin. Uncle Jim Woodyard, those at Hazel Patch and Pittsburg. They intend to start for Washington Territory, to make that their future home, if pleased.

We were glad to have Miss Laura Hill with us Thursday night and our regret at her departure was increased by her brother Jones' accompaniment. He has been such a favorite of the school and will be greatly missed.
